

PRIVACY NOTICE

nu-ne-lah design consultants knows that you care about your privacy. Thank you for trusting us to protect you and the information that you share. We too care about privacy. We respect the privacy of every individual and organization that visits our Web site(s) or responds to an online invitation. This Privacy Statement outlines the information gathering and dissemination practices for nu-ne-lah design consultants Web site(s).

We have implemented this Privacy Statement on the nu-ne-lah design consultants home page www.nunelah.com and have instructed our Web masters to include the Privacy Statement in our nu-ne-lah design consultants Web site(s) where information may be requested or collected by us.

Your use of an nu-ne-lah design consultants Web site signifies your acceptance of the nu-ne-lah design consultants Privacy Statement.

nu-ne-lah design consultants strives to comply with all applicable laws around the globe that are designed to protect your privacy. Although legal requirements may vary from country to country, nu-ne-lah design consultants intends to adhere to the principles set forth in this Privacy Statement even if, in connection with the above, we transfer your information from your country to countries that may not require the same level of protection for your information. In other words, our goal is to protect your information no matter where that information is collected, transferred, or retained.

What Information Is Collected From You?

You may visit nu-ne-lah design consultants sites anonymously or as a registered guest. Whether you visit our sites in an anonymous or registered fashion, information may be collected from you. nu-ne-lah design consultants collects both identifiable and anonymous information.

- Business and Personal Identifiable Information

nu-ne-lah design consultants will not collect identifiable information without your prior consent. We will endeavour to not use this information outside of the context in which it was provided unless otherwise approved by you at the time of submission.

Due to our strong commitment to privacy, we will inform you of our information requirements before we collect information from you. nu-ne-lah design consultants may require business related information (e.g., growth plans, cost models, network infrastructure) and personal information (e.g., user name, e-mail address) from you when you visit our site(s). We will not gather identifiable information unless you knowingly provide it to us. The personal information that you provide to us will only be used for business purposes. nu-ne-lah design consultants may use identifiable information for activities such as the preparation of business solution proposals, to conduct contests, or to provide you with access to a transactional service such as Order Tracking if applicable.

- Anonymous Information

To help us understand user preferences and the trends of a general user population, we may collect information that is not identifiable to you during your session as either an anonymous visitor or registered guest. This type of information currently includes the following:

- internet browser in use
- computer operating system
- domain name of the nu-ne-lah design consultants Web site from which you linked to our site or online invitation
- pages viewed
- search requests

Online Advertising

nu-ne-lah design consultants works with certain companies to deliver nu-ne-lah design consultants banner ads. These companies may collect information to help us determine which products, services, and offers are of the most interest to our current and future customers. The information that is collected is not identifiable at an individual or company level. It is aggregated at an anonymous level to provide us with general statistics and trends.

Information Access, Quality, and Sharing

nu-ne-lah design consultants provides you with the right to access the identifiable information that we have collected from you. You also have the ability to request additions, modifications, and deletions to this information. If you would like to request access or make modifications to your identifiable information, please submit your inquiry to privacy@nunelah.com

If you are a registered user of any one of our nu-ne-lah design consultants Web sites, you can verify some of your identifiable information at www.nunelah.com. If you have submitted information to an nu-ne-lah design consultants Web site or online invitation, and would like that information deleted from our records, please contact privacy@nunelah.com. We shall endeavour to delete this information from our files.

If you choose to provide us with your identifiable information, we may transfer that information, within nu-ne-lah design consultants or to nu-ne-lah's business partners, across borders and from your country or jurisdiction to other countries or jurisdictions around the world. For example, if you participated in a site contest, your contact information could be shared with a fulfilment agency that would ship you your contest prize. nu-ne-lah design consultants will only share identifiable information with its business partners if you have provided us with consent to do so.

In the event that nu-ne-lah design consultants sells a part or parts of its business, the identifiable information that nu-ne-lah design consultants has collected could be transferred to the acquiring company unless you instruct nu-ne-lah design consultants not to do so in writing.

Information Security

The security of your identifiable information is of the utmost importance to nu-ne-lah design consultants. We use industry standard technologies such as token-based authentication, PKI, VPN, SSL, and other technologies to secure your information. If you are a registered guest at an nu-ne-lah design consultants site, we employ an authentication process to verify your identity. A userid and password is provided to grant you access to your identifiable information and eServices.

The following activities are examples of actions that are conducted within secure areas of the nu-ne-lah design consultants infrastructure: entering or changing your password, editing account details, viewing proprietary information (such as order status information), and other actions requiring authorization.

Please take note of the following to ensure information security:

- You should be aware that when you disclose identifiable information in the discussion forum or chat areas, this information is accessible and can be collected and used by others who visit this area.
- nu-ne-lah design consultants advises you to protect yourself against unauthorized access to your computer and your nu-ne-lah design consultants password. If you lose control of your password, you should immediately change your password.

Business Relationships

During your online nu-ne-lah design consultants experience, you may encounter links to the sites of nu-ne-lah's business partners. These business partners may include standards bodies, customers, channel partners, or suppliers. While a connection may be made to a nu-ne-lah design consultants business partner site, nu-ne-lah design consultants is not responsible for the privacy practices of our business partners.
